

Centuries of Sound

Summary

Centuries of Sound is making a soundscape mix for every year of recorded sound, free to stream or download.

Who is it for?

Anyone with an interest in music or history, or who wants to be immersed in a particular era

Creator

James Errington lives in Cambridge, UK, but has spent most of his adult life abroad. He makes these mixes in whatever spare time he can find.

History

Centuries of Sound was conceived while James was living in China and separated from western culture. He has made mixtapes since he was 8 years old, and has been making mixes for the internet since 2008.

Why listen?

To travel in time to years which have passed, or are passing, from living memory.

Schedule

Mixes are released on the first Monday of each month. In this year they will cover the years 1920 to 1931.
